Compliance Initiative

The importance of compliance is fundamental to experience gained in the successful construction and operation of the Three Gorges Project and an important foundation contributive to the high-quality development of China Three Gorges Corporation ("CTG"). In order to further build consensus on compliance, clarify compliance program, cultivate compliance culture, strive to build a model enterprise with full governance, regulated operation and rules-driven management, abiding by the law and integrity, and help to realize the goal of "peak carbon dioxide emissions, carbon neutral" as well as develop rapidly into a world-class clean energy group with strong innovation ability and global competitiveness, CTG hereby formulates the Compliance Manual of China Three Gorges Corporation ("Compliance Manual").

The Compliance Manual sets forth the basic requirements and norms for CTG and its employees in production and operation, market behavior, business contacts, business ethics and social responsibility from five aspects, namely, code of compliance, company and employees, corporate governance and operation, company and society, as well as consultation and complaint, and specifies the general program for compliance operation of CTG and compliance expectation for its employees and stakeholders.

CTG hereby solemnly commits to and endorses the compliance initiative to its stakeholders.

We must strictly abide by the laws and regulations of China and the host countries (regions) where our business is carried out, always adhere to our high standard of ethics, and devote to building ourselves into a model enterprise in line with domestic and foreign ethics. We must observe strictly the Compliance Manual, and must not accept any business objective which can only be achieved by sacrificing moral principles and violating the compliance concept.

CTG and its subsidiaries, as independent market players, shall do business independently under the guidance of innovation-driven development and high quality supply, strictly follow the code of conduct in the market economy, deem integrity and compliance operation as the basic bottom line and core competitiveness for business development, and compete in the market fairly. Meanwhile, they also actively accept the supervision of regulators and the public, play an exemplary role in fulfilling the corporate social responsibility, and promote and guarantee their sustainable and healthy development.

All the employees shall abide strictly by the requirements of the Compliance Manual, perform job responsibilities according to the laws and regulations, and treat colleagues, clients, suppliers, contractors and other business partners fairly. All the employees shall bear in mind that any violation of the Compliance Manual will be deemed as a serious incident because it will probably have a destructive impact on CTG and other colleagues, and damage CTG's reputation. Given this, all the employees shall strictly abide by the Compliance Manual while carrying out their work.

We expect and encourage our business partners to uphold the Compliance Manual, and work with us to practice the concept of compliance operation, and contribute to the coordinated development of global economy, society and environment.

Manual Instructions

Note: in this Manual, "CTG" refers to China Three Gorges Corporation, its affiliates and subsidiaries at various levels.

 Bols of Formulation

In accordance with the Compliance Management Regulations (Trial) of CTG, the Compliance Manual is formulated to guide the employees to establish the consciousness of rules, lay solid conceptual bottom lines, and form the basic program and guidelines for legal and compliance operations across CTG.

Scope of Application

The Compliance Manual is applicable to CTG and all its employees. Moreover, anyone acting on behalf of CTG shall also follow relevant provisions of the Compliance Manual.

The CTG’s subsidiaries at various levels implement the Compliance Manual through their decision-making procedures. CTG also encourages and suggests its shareholding companies to implement the Compliance Manual through corresponding decision-making procedures.

Application Requirements

All the employees shall carefully study the Compliance Manual, master the basic requirements of compliance management, and strictly abide by this Manual.

Besides the Compliance Manual which sets forth the basic code of conduct of the employees at the macro level, the employees shall also abide by the laws, regulations, national policies and other rules and regulations of CTG.

In case of inconsistency between the Compliance Manual and local laws, regulations, public order or good customs of the host country or region where CTG’s overseas business is carried out, the strictest standards shall be followed.

If you have doubts about compliance or don’t know how to deal with a situation, please consult relevant department in a timely fashion.
